Full of diverse content and challenging enemies, on my list of games that I will sing 20 hours into, soon. definitely worth it on sale but I would give it 8/10 for the full price. GG EZ Great Champion, more like, Berate Lampton!!!!. worth to buy, im really love the concept of the game, skill is more important and p2w is not a type of the game. I sympathize somewhat with some of the negative reviews here but honestly, I think their being a bit dramatic. The game costs $2.39 and is actually a good little game. Not being able to use your sword mid air or while running seemed stupid to me at first then I grew to like it. It makes it more challenging, which is the point. It's a CastleVania clone and it's supposed to be difficult. All in all, I found the game to be quite easy in fairness but enjoyed it a lot.

Here's a video of me playing the first couple of levels if you want to check it out.

<https://youtu.be/V0-tpT-ACA>. Just completed it. It's a shame. I love the premise of the story, but the gameplay just doesn't live up to the vision. The character designs are pretty fun, and there is the occasional fun moment the first time you play one of your tricks.. but after that there is nothing unexpected. Here's the things you may click, click them at the right time, level over.

If you want to see this concept done right, get Ghost Trick. You can hop into all sorts of objects and the puzzles always unravel in quirky, unexpected ways. It is a joy to play and very clever. Wayward Manor doesn't come close to it. Sorry guys.. This game has been out for about a week and it's already dominated by aimbots.

Neat.

This game's a lot of fun when you actually get to play it, but between all the trolls, hackers, morons who haven't played the tutorial, and the broken matchmaker \(had two games in a row where we were missing 2 players. Neat\) it's too much of a chore to bother.

Wait for the next update to see if they implement a better anti-cheat, teach new players better, and add a reporting feature. And if not... well at least I got some Dead by Daylight cosmetics for my \$35 Canadian Dollars.

*EDIT - Developer response has given me hope. I do not hate this game but I do think that in its current state it's not worth purchasing. Wait for anti-cheat before buying this game because right now it's impossible to enjoy with speedhackers on one side and wall hacking aimbots on the other.. 10/10 would eat again

I just made it to mission 11 last night and I have to say that this has to be the best campaign for the A-10C. The voice acting is spot on! You really need to be on your toes with this campaign as CAS calls come flying in and you better be ready to write the info down because once its gone... its gone.

This really forced me to learn the aircraft and the systems better to get the job done.

I understand that several of the last missions are currently broken... I am hoping that they get fixed soon.

Will BRRRRRTTTT again 10V10. Man I really wanted to like this game. I really wanted to recommend it to my friends, let people try it out, but I just cant.

Im not going to write a book here, but Ill say a few things briefly.

The graphics everyone are complaining about? Meh. They arent terrible. Thats the least of the games problems tbh.

The problem lies in a few things, one of which is pretty much a core mechanic and will probably never be fixed. The AI is basically scripted and cheats. So if you are expecting an Alien Isolation experience, this isnt it. The AI will always be in the same place, every time, take the same path, and its basically up to you to figure out the "Trick" to get past it on that particular area or stage. This pretty much killed it for me.

The second biggest problem is the controls on the HTC Vive. They are just awful. Im not talking about locomotion, Im talking how the game has you interact with things is just illogical give the controls you are using. Trigger to grab things? UP on the Touchpad to shoot? What? Did no one with a Vive playtest this and tell the Devs how awful that is?

Finally, the game is short. Like an hour-ish. And given it has very little replay value, its just not worth $20 for that length. I didnt beat it personally because I couldnt stand the awful glitchy AI and bad controls, but there are plenty of youtube videos that will show you the game length.. this is the best fps i have ever played who needs cs:go the servers are the best i have ever seen and they put so mch time into this i rate 10/10. If you enjoyed the game Civil War 2 then this is a good DLC for the game. The added scenarios are good and add more possible directions the game can go. You can play later in the war and the 64 65 scenario is a real challenge as a confederate just like the war. But if your new to the game the 62 east or west campaign is a good starter for learning to handle larger operations if you have been learning through the smaller scenarios. Its a lil pricey but if you can snag it on a sale this is a must have for this game.... Do you like arcade shooters, retro artstyles, fast paced games, and huge skill trees?

Then this game is for you!

The goal of the game is to get all 8 keys to escape the terminal, and should you do that, you'll get your stats reset but you get extra starting points and passive node slots up to 5 times.

It took me 70 minutes to complete the game counting time in menus.

Do I reccomend? Absolutely. It's essentially a $10 game with a permanent 80% off discount.

. This game is hands down one of the best games I have played to date, and I'm quite the avid gamer. Warhammer seems to have taken over my life as of recent and this holds the Holy Grail. You don't even have to be a fan of Warhammer to enjoy it. This Diablo 3-esque dungeon crawler already has plenty of hours shoved into playtime and has plenty more headed its way. Replay value is extremely high as I want to max out all characters. 100V10 recommend this game.
